RUSSIA AND RUMANIA AT LAST REACH A PEACE AGREEMENT

Germans Launch Heavy Attack in Flanders, Driving in British Outposts, But Britons React and Germans Suffer Heavy Losses—Russian and German Vessels in Clash.

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Leon Trotsky, who brought about the armistice on the eastern front, which resulted in the present enforced peace in Russia, has resigned as Bolsheviki Foreign Minister. To Trotsky probably more than to any of the Bolsheviki leaders is due the present situation in Russia. He was said to have cast the deciding vote on the question of sending delegates to Brest-Litovsk a fortnight ago. Germany in her ruthless demands shattered his program of non-resistance.

The resignation of Ensign Krylenko, the Bolshevik commander-in-chief, was accepted Friday. Nickoli Lenine is the only one left. The overthrow of the Bolsheviki reign in Russia is being planned by the Social Revolutionists. Dr. Eliff, of Moscow University, is quoted in a message from Copenhagen that no decision was reached in a recent conference in Moscow when it was determined to organize a national guard to accomplish the downfall of the Bolsheviki.

The evacuation of Petrograd by the government and populace continues. Most of the populace is reported as being indifferent to the situation.

Conclusion of peace between Russia and Rumania is announced in a Russian wireless dispatch received in London today.

A naval engagement on Thursday, between German destroyers and a Russian transport south of the Allan Island, is reported in a Copenhagen dispatch.

BRITISH DEFEAT GERMANS IN FLANDERS

Western Flanders, for the first time this year, has been the scene of serious fighting between the British and the enemy, who were forced to retire behind the position from which they attacked. After a heavy bombardment the Germans fought the British lines on a front of more than a mile north and northeast of Ypres. At one point the enemy broke through, but on most of the front he was thrown back with losses.

The British counter-attacked and drove the Germans back to their own lines and then occupied three hundred yards of it.

TWO HEAVY GERMAN ATTACKS ARE REPULSED BY BRITISH IN 24 HOURS

The long period during which the fighting on the western front has been confined almost to trench raids now is over and the campaign has entered another phase, at least on the British front.

Twice within twenty-four hours the Germans have attacked the British lines in Belgium on comparatively quiet fronts. Each time, however, they were thrown back with heavy losses. Once on the first attack launched during the day yesterday over a width of more than a mile south of Houtholst Woods, the Germans lost some of their original ground through a British counter attack.

The second attack came last night on a front of nearly a mile, after a bombardment lasting several hours. The Germans drove in on both sides of the Ypres-Menin Road and were repulsed speedily. Some two hundred yards of the lines which the British lost was regained in the activities during the night, the position being entirely restored.

ORGANIZING NEW NATIONAL ARMY ON WAY

Original Plan of "Typical" Field Army of Three Army Corps Is Changed to Include Five or Six Army Corps.

Men, Material and Supplies Going Forward on Schedule.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, March 9.—With men, material and supplies moving forward to General Pershing in full accordance with the pre-arranged schedule, the War Department has taken up the organization of the first selective army, the largest practical unit used in modern warfare.

Until General Pershing has under his command a complete field army, no further organization of fighting units will be started.

It was originally the intention of the department to form the "typical" field army by combining three army corps, but it is understood that this plan has been abandoned for one which calls for five or six.

"Mr. Hoover will ask from the American people no sacrifice on their part which he does not deem necessary," she said. "The sooner the American people realize this, the better for all of us."

Plucky Sammie Kills Leader of Gang of Hun Trench-raiders and Others Flee in Darkness

Urging of Germans to "Come Out" of American Trench Speedily Heeded.

(Associated Press Cable)

With the American Army in France, Thursday, March 7.—A lone American sentry this morning attacked an enemy patrol of about 40 men, some of whom had entered an advance American trench. He drove them off, killing the leader and wounding others. The name of this man is mentioned in all reports of the affair.

The sentry saw the patrol advancing and watched as the Germans began to drop cautiously into the trench. He knew an American patrol was out along the wire and counted upon its help after he opened fire.

By the time five Germans entered the trench the sentry thought he should delay no longer. He opened fire and the German leader fell at the first crack of the rifle.

After the American began firing Germans some distance away shouted to their comrades "come out! come out!" The Germans needed no second invitation.

GERMANS ARE ENDEAVORING TO CONCEAL LOSS

(Associated Press Correspondence)

PARIS, February 27.—Germans are trying to conceal their airplane losses and augment those of the Entente Allies, according to French officials. Their last communique on the subject said that "In December the enemy aerial forces have lost 119 airplanes and nine captive balloons. We have lost in aerial combats 82 airplanes and two captive balloons."

French authorities report that in December the English brought down 65 German machines and the French 41, making a total of 106 instead of 84 admitted by the Germans. The French claim of enemy machines does not include 35 German machines which were seen to fall but the loss of which has not been officially confirmed. The combined British and French aerial losses during December were 43 machines instead of 128 claimed by Germany. Of these British lost 32 and the French 11.

The German "camouflage" in the communique is found in the words "in aerial combats." It is pointed out that the Germans forget to include the number of machines brought down by anti-aircraft guns of the Allies while they claim as losses all Allied machines seen to fall within their own lines and many of which are virtually undamaged.

don are reported. The eighty year old sister of a special constable was found alive under the wreckage of her home several hours after the raiders had passed.

She was finally dug out after oxygen had been administered to keep her alive.

In another neighborhood a young woman died as the last piece of wreckage of her home, under which she had been pinned for five hours, was removed.

GREAT EVENT IN MASONRY R. & S. DEGREE CONFERRED

Largest Class in History of Local Lodge is Initiated in Ancient Craft Masonry.

Beautiful Work Delivered in Spectacular Manner by Columbus Council Most Elaborate Ceremonials Ever Presented in Temple.

A meeting which had been looked forward to for some time in Masonic circles took place Friday afternoon and evening in this city when a class of fifty-one received the eighth and ninth degrees of York Rite Masonry and a class of one hundred and fifteen received the tenth degree, in Fayette Council No. 100 Royal and Select Master Masons.

The meeting commenced early in the afternoon, and the eighth degree, Royal Master, was conferred about two o'clock, and shortly before five o'clock the work in the ninth degree, Select Master, had been concluded on forty of the class. Eleven of the class had received these degrees Thursday evening, as the class became so large there was not time to do all of the work Friday afternoon.

Columbus Council No. 8, of Columbus, Ohio, arrived on a special car on the 3:28 afternoon B. & O. train, with one hundred and one Masons, in which was their noted cast of sixty men to confer the tenth degree. With the arrival of the Columbus visitors there were almost three hundred Masons assembled, including members and visitors from Greenfield, Jeffersonville, Bloomington, New Holland, Wilmington, Mt. Sterling, London and Chillicothe.

Rev. V. F. Brown, of Milford, was attending to inspect the work of the Council, and complimented the officers very highly on the efficient manner in which they handled the situation in the afternoon. During the afternoon a telegram was received from the Grand Master of Ohio, reading: "Congratulations on your fine class. Fraternal Greetings and best wishes for the success of the occasion.—Leon C. Herriek."

The Temple was beautifully decorated throughout with Masonic banners and American flags, and the banquet hall presented an especially beautiful scene decorated with flags and banners, and the tables embellished with red, white and blue carnations and strewn with greenery. Two hundred and fifty were served at six o'clock, and more came later.

The candidates were assembled at 7:15 and promptly at 7:30 Columbus Council commenced the work of conferring the tenth degree, Super Excellent Master, on one hundred and eight. Local Masons had expected an elaborate ceremony, but Columbus did itself justice and far exceeded all expectations. Elaborately equipped, and with a perfect cast, they presented the most elaborate and instructive of the degrees in York Rite Masonry. The work was under the general direction of Robert H. Pausch, who had a prominent role in the cast. Others presenting leading parts were John P. Kuhns, Campbell M. Voorhees, W. S. Lanfersiek, John F. Lanfersiek, J. Edward Orr and W. S. Jameson, Thrice Illustrious Master of Columbus Council.

Mr. L. W. Buckmaster, a very prominent Columbus Mason, was among the candidates, coming back to his home town to take one of the degrees with this class.

The work was concluded at nine-thirty, the Columbus visitors returning on the late B. & O. train. The meeting proved to be more than had been anticipated, and local Cryptic Rite Masons were indeed pleased with it.

During the past three weeks thousands of Fayette county hogs have been marketed at this city and the various other shipping points in the county, and in many instances the hogs were not in extra good condition, due to the shortage of corn on the farm where they were grown.

However, most farmers are buying corn if necessary to finish off their hogs as they should be, realizing that there is extra good money made in buying corn at its present price and feeding it to hogs that are selling at the high price now being paid.

Scores of loads of hogs have been shipped from this city within the past few days.

75,000 CHINESE FACE STARVATION

(Associated Press Correspondence)
Pekin, February 25.—Seventy-five thousand persons in the flooded district southwest of Tientsin are facing death by starvation and exposure, according to a report by the North China Christian Flood Relief Committee. Similar conditions on a smaller scale obtain in other parts of the flooded area.

While the water has drained away from the larger part of the flooded area, the Wen-An Hsien district still forms a lake some 2 thousand square miles in extent, approximately triangular in shape, with Tientsin at the apex. Here the water which at its height was twenty feet still reaches a depth of fifteen feet.

The district is all below the level of the rivers which enclose it and the water cannot drain off, but must gradually disappear by evaporation and percolation, a process which at the best will probably require five years.

In some of the river bends there have been accumulations of ice which have so checked the flow of the water that it has broken out again in fresh places and reflooded certain areas, destroying the winter wheat. In one district the people had sown wheat three times as the water gradually drained off, and the third time it took root, only to be finally destroyed by these new winter floods.

The suffering of destitute villagers is described in a letter from Anping as follows:

"The cold has cost many lives for the people are largely without fuel and in many cases have no winter clothes. One of the agents recruiting workmen for roadmaking found in one village that ten people had succumbed in a few days. The destitution is increasing and the suffering growing more intense."

SPRINGFIELDERS ARE TOO MUCH FOR THE WASHINGTON "HI"

The local Hi basket ball team journeyed to Springfield, Friday night expecting to defeat the high school there, but the Springfield bunch proved too much for the locals. The score ended 49 to 23.

Before Springfield could get started, the blue and white collected three field goals for a lead of six points. Then Springfield got busy and showered the baskets with the ball. At the end of the first the score 25 to 12, with Springfield in the lead.

Boots, W. H. S. center, was unable to play as he is still suffering from a badly sprained ankle. This necessitated several shifts in the line-up, which put the blue and white team under a handicap. DeWees and Lewis put up the best game for W. H. S. They made five field goals each and DeWees made three fouls.

Baumgardner and Compton, left forward and left guard for Springfield were the stellar attractions for that team. The former made ten field goals and one foul and the latter seven field goals.

The Importance of Small Events

All great events if traced back to their origin will be found to have developed from some insignificant circumstance which at the time was not deemed of enough importance to be remembered.

The present great war followed the assassination of the Crown Prince of Austria, and while the war would probably have come sooner or later, yet that event was seized upon by Germany as the starting point and a cause.

Early in the Civil war the Confederate Government had negotiated the sale of $20,000,000 of cotton bonds for gold in England. An officer of the treasury at Richmond had been appointed to go to England and deliver the bonds.

The affair was conducted with the utmost secrecy and it was arranged for him to leave Richmond on an early morning train, that would arrive at Wilmington N. C. an hour previous to the time fixed for a blockade runner, on which he was to take passage for England, to leave that port. He arose at an early hour, and to save time took a short route to the train. Walking rapidly in the morning darkness, his feet caught in an old discarded hoop skirt, throwing him and breaking one of his legs.

Before he was discovered the train had left and the blockade runner also had cleared safely on time without the messenger. This affair if successful might have made a difference in the result of the war, but the old hoop skirt proved to be loyal and was worth an army to the North.

Another instance of the kind is cited in the act of the captain of one of the Federal vessels blockading the port of Wilmington, N. C., moving without orders from his assigned position. His mistake allowed a blockade runner with a load of war material to slip into the port. The vessel was quickly unloaded and the cargo consisting principally of Enfield Rifles, sent by rail to General Albert Sidney Johnson at Corinth, Miss. The result was the battle of Shiloh.

The Mexican war is said to have originated from a quarrel between two men about a line fence. There have been numerous such quarrels, but this is the only known instance resulting in a war between nations.

If the claim is true that Mr. Edison found his first idea of the phonograph in accidentally pricking his thumb on a needle while working on a telephone, it was a fortunate thing that his thumb was pricked!

In 1854 England, France and Turkey were at war with Russia in the Crimea. On the night of November 5 there was a heavy fog which enveloped both the allied and Russian armies and no thought of an attack was entertained by the Allies. An English sergeant found it impossible to sleep and he left his tent and walked down a rocky hill in front. Hearing a slight squeaking noise, which sounded to him like a wheel that needed oil, he ran back at once to the commanding officer and reported what he had heard and giving his opinion that the Russian army was coming to attack them. The alarm was sounded and the English and French had scarcely formed in line when the Russian Army in overwhelming numbers rushed upon them. Then occurred the bloody battle of Inkerman and the defeat of the Russians caused the surrender of Sebastople and the end of the war.

We learn from this that everything regardless how small, has its influence in the shaping of destiny and in noting these insignificant things and calculating their influence on those greater is what is called efficiency. Had not this English sergeant when his quick ear caught this slight noise, made the right deductions, the Crimean war would not have ended when it did and possibly the result would have been different. The Russians had provided everything as they thought for a complete surprise and destruction of the English and French armies. The men had been ordered not to speak, and the artillery wheels and horses feet had been muffled so that they made not the slightest sound, but that one neglected wheel made all this careful preparation useless, and in this instance the result of a great battle depended on a drop of oil.

No Time to Find Fault

People who are doing heroic work are never those who have much time or inclination to complain. They are usually too much occupied with constructive plans to waste attention on mere fault-finding.

Similarly, General Pershing's men at the front are confidently optimistic and good-natured. The Stars and Stripes, the official newspaper of the American expeditionary force in France, is an excellent illustration of this point. It shows that while the stay-at-homes are often the grumblers, those at the front know how to make light of hardships.

Their newspaper is full of fun and good cheer, and the bracing and breezy editorials, "To the Folks Back Home," is precisely the kind of advice the "Uncle Jonahs" and the "Aunt Dolefuls" need.—Christian Science Monitor.

Poetry For Today

TO THEE! DEAR FRANCE.
 The war torn world is weary.
 The strife lasts over long;
 But we are coming, Father Joffre,
 Fifty thousand airplanes strong!

"Bread cast upon the waters"
 By the Marquis La Fayette,
 Returns to thee, dear France, today.
 America does not forget!

And what we have of manhood,
 And what we have of gold,
 We give it thee most gladly.
 Our great cause to uphold.

Our boys now march together,
 And the burden of their song,
 "We are coming, Father Joffre,
 Fifty thousand airplanes strong!"
 —E. P. Snively.

STRIKE OFF

(By American Press)
 Washington, March 9.—The strike of carpenters at the Hog Island shipyards, near Philadelphia, has been settled on orders given to Admiral Francis Bowles, the shipping board announced. The strike resulted from the fact that Admiral Bowles was not acquainted with an agreement reached recently providing double time for all overtime construction work in the Philadelphia district. The men, including machinists and pile drivers, as well as woodworkers, decided to walk out. About 2,000 dropped their tools.

Mme. Poincaré thanks the women of America and pledges her own countrywomen to observance of the reciprocal arrangement.

ITALY FACES NEW ATTACK

(By American Press)
 London, March 9.—Spirited fighting is going on in Italy.

On the Asiago plateau, the Teutonic forces have resumed their attacks on the Italian lines, while all along the Piave artillery engagements of considerable violence are developing. The Macedonian war theater, too, has become more active than usual. In four sectors along this front heavy artillery fighting is reported by the French official statement.

The British forces in Palestine have once more taken the offensive and have advanced over a front of 18 miles to the depth of three miles. The British are slowly moving northward along the valley of the Jordan from Jericho and are advancing their lines to the west to sweep the Turks completely out of that region.

Verdon is once more the scene of heavy artillery actions. The American lines near Toul are just to the southeast of Verdun, and the continued activity along this front shows that the Germans contemplate serious operations there.

Raids in force such as were met by the Americans with the utmost fortitude and completely repulsed, have not been repeated, but German aviators are continually over the American lines, spying out ammunition dumps, location of guns and the disposition of the American forces.

It is revealed in late reports that the retirement of the Germans from Narva, west of Petrograd, was a result of successful resistance of Russian forces at the city of Jamburg, 68 miles southwest of the Russian capital. This resistance may be only a local instance of the disposition of the Bolshevik government to fight against further invasion of Great Russia, but it points to the fact that the Russians are still capable of conducting a defense which is effective.

The last details relative to the peace signed with Finland show that from the Arctic ocean to the Black sea the German power is complete. It is reported that Finland has "asked" Emperor William to place his son Oscar on the Finnish throne. This, as was indicated a few days ago, absolutely deprives Russia of both shores of the Gulf of Finland and makes Petrograd virtually an inland city, so far as foreign commerce is concerned.

THEIR REASON

(Associated Press Correspondence)
 London, February 15.—"I am very comfortably billeted in the German General Falkenhayn's headquarters," writes a British officer from Jerusalem. "I am even sleeping in Falkenhayn's bed. The whole place is very luxuriously fitted out. There are sitting rooms, parlors, and library, all lit by electric lights and with every convenience, together with a bathroom with hot and cold water and a shower."

Charles Bradbeer was slugged and robbed of $700 at Detroit while hundreds of pedestrians looked on. The two robbers escaped in an auto.

Social and Personal

Society may well find several latent suggestions in the following verses and the table talk subsequent to their recital as culled from the Cleveland Leader:

Oh, say can you sing from the start to the end,
What so proudly you stand for when orchestras play it;
When the whole congregation, in voices that blend,
Strike up the grand hymn, and then torture and slay it?
How they bellow and shout when they're first starting out,
But "the dawn's early light" finds them floundering about,
'Tis "The Star Spangled Banner"
they're trying to sing,
But they don't know the words of the precious old thing.

Hark! The "twilight's last gleaming" has some of them stopped
But the valiant survivors press forward serenely
To the "ramparts we watched" where some others are dropped
And the loss of the leader is manifest keenly.
Then "the rockets red glare" gives the bravest a scare,
And there's few left to face the "bombs bursting in air"—
'Tis a thin line of heroes that manage to save
The last of the verse and, "The home of the brave."

A clever guest read these verses at a woman's luncheon the other day and when she came to "the rocket's red glare" and "bombs bursting in air" she struck the key in a high soprano voice. It was rather startling in its effect and the lines are hereby reproduced that some other woman may learn and spring them.
Then the table talk drifted to what is good form when the national anthem is sung or played by band or orchestra.

And my dear! maybe I didn't learn something at the Italian benefit Sunday afternoon. Of course you were there. When the Italian band began "The Star Spangled Banner," I happened to be where I could see an English army officer who was in a box, with Mrs. Ben Parmely and Mrs.
Ralph Gray. Instantly he was on his feet and stood with his right hand touching his cap with elbow sharply turned out. That was something new to me for I'd always heard that it is enough to stand still and "face the music" but they say it's a new rule.
I like it, too, even if it makes the rest of us look small and illbred to be moving about. In about a minute the Italian band began an Italian anthem and up rose the Britisher again and stood at "salute" the way he did before when our anthem was played. I wondered, though what those charming looking Italian officers who were sitting in a loge thought to see not

CAMPAIGN FOR BABY SAVING LAUNCHED DEFENSE COUNCIL

At a meeting of 400 members of the Ohio Woman's Committee of the Council of National Defense, held on Thursday and Friday at the state house in Columbus, among other things, a plan was outlined by Dr. Frances M. Hollingshead for saving babies.

Ohio's quota to be saved is 4510. The number for the nation is 100,000. These figures are arrived at from the fact that 300,000 children under the age of 5 years died in the United States last year, of whom, it is contended, one-third could have been saved.

"Children's Year" is a national movement beginning April 6 and lasting throughout the year.

Each county has been given a quota of babies to be saved. The number to be saved during the next year is 14 for the county.

The methods to be pursued are education of mothers through lecture and public health nurses.

It was also announced at the meeting that the government needs 5,000 stenographers and Ohio is expected to furnish 500. Arrangements have been made for room and board, not to exceed $10 per week, in desirable establishments and no young girl is sent out by the Woman's Committee without entire arrangements being previously made for her.

Miss Bertha K. Young, of Cincinnati, was made chairman of the committee on training classes.

Twenty-two state-wide organizations were represented at the meeting.

On Friday the Woman's Liberty Loan committee, a branch of the Defense Council, met and organized for the next liberty loan drive. This branch of the work will not be taken up by the Women's Committee in Fayette county, owing to the already efficient methods used by our local War Council.

Miss Florence Allen, Cleveland attorney, said in part, that liberty loans began with the Declaration of Independence. At that time, however, they were merely for the freedom of individuals, while now they are for the freedom of peoples and nations.

She characterized the present-day task of raising war loans as insignificant, compared with the difficulties confronted by Robert Morris in directing similar work in the revolutionary war.

HUMAN INTEREST PLAY NOW AT THE COLONIAL

A film attraction with the ever-popular star, Clara Kimball Young, is showing at the Colonial for the last time tonight. It is needless to speak of the beauty and charm of this actress and almost as superfluous to say that she rises superbly to the role of Shirley Kaye, a brilliant young woman, whose family and position make her dictator in society's realm.

It is a play of real human interest, in which Shirley's splendid spirit, the inheritance of a pirate ancestor, and will enable her to hark the game of financier and railroad magnet.

The part of the brusque financier is capably played by George Fawcett and the cast an excellent one.

While keeping the audience on the qui vive with interest there are no harrowing features and the story develops to a happy ending with the "woman hater" completely conquered. Beautiful settings and gorgeous scenes of society life are provided.

RED CROSS ACTIVITIES

The American Red Cross in France has established a record for home-building. A call came to Paris from "somewhere in France" for three barracks. The Red Cross was told that it would take the workmen at least five days to erect one building. Within that time the Red Cross workers had all three buildings up and ready for occupancy. They employed just 23 men on the job.

Red Cross officials determined some time ago to place "in stock" a number of portable or demountable barracks for immediate use wherever they might be desired. It was discovered that a Swiss manufacturer had on hand forty-three buildings that were not needed by the Italian army, for which they had been constructed. These barracks were of special design, having been made from plans by an Italian army officer.

The Red Cross immediately contracted for the entire number, obtained them and now can ship a home for forty people to any part of France on a few hours' notice, and erect it in less than two days. It has even supplied the United States Army with ten of these buildings for immediate use.

The buildings are unique in construction. Each weighs about five tons and can be easily shipped in one freight car. Unlike many demountable or "knocked down" buildings, these are absolutely rain and weather proof, thus assuring adequate protection in unseasonable weather to refugees, hospital patients, etc.

Each building when set up is about 97 feet long by 17 feet wide with twelve large windows. The original barracks had only six windows, but the Red Cross, acting on the sound American hygienic principle of "fresh air and light," put six more in the sides.

The demountable barracks have been stored in Paris and are ready for the establishment of hospitals, rest houses, canteens and the like in any part of France upon a few hours' notice.

"Rolling Canteens"
Two rolling canteens, or kitchens on wheels have been put into service by the American Red Cross Commission to Italy according to advice from Milan received at Washington and relayed to James R. Garfield manager of the Lake Division.

"The object of the rolling canteens is to furnish hot food to soldiers in first line trenches. Two New Yorkers are in charge of these units. They are Lieut. Gardner Penniman and Lieut. Edward McKey.

"Four additional rolling canteens will be sent out next week."

Local Team Goes Down in Second Defeat of the Season, 44 to 41, at Brilliant Work Which Delights Crowd in Attendance. Columbus and Camp Sherman Teams Coming.

The Ashville basketball team carried home the championship of southern Ohio Friday night by defeating the "Y" 44 to 41, in a game made featureless by the tight guarding of both teams. The game was fought out from beginning to end but Ashville managed to draw away in the last three minutes of play, when the score was 41 to 39, with Ashville in the lead.

Then H. Smith, "Y" forward, caged a basket which tied the score, Messick, Ashville forward, made a field goal which made the score 43 to 41. A foul was then called on H. Smith which Messick made and as the ball touched the floor, the whistle blew leaving Ashville victorious 44 to 41.

Both teams were so evenly matched that it is almost impossible to pick an individual star. Sollars had it on his team mates as far as score getting goes.

In the first half guard, Stoker, held him to a single basket, but in the second half his guard's rough tactics failed to hold him and he made six field goals and one foul. The work of the other players on the "Y" team was also good.

The crowd in attendance was the largest one of the season.

The referee was Myers; the umpire, O'Connor; the scorers, Kroft and Shipley, and the timekeepers Cromley and Wetzel.

ROSS YOUNG

ROSS YOUNG

With so capable a player around as Ross Young, the Giants have not much cause to worry over the loss of Davey Robertson. If Young lands the right field position it will be his first job in the major leagues. He made a wonderful record in the minors, leading the Western Association in batting two years ago, and finishing second to Larry Lajoie last year in the International League with the splendid average of .357. His fielding is said to be on a par with his stick-work. He covers a great deal of ground and is an excellent judge of drives and fly balls.

The line-ups were as follows:
Ashville: Messick, lg; Hoover, rg; Odofer, c; Stoker, lg; Mithoff, rg.
Y. M. C. A.—H. Smith, lf; Sollars, rg; Hays, c; O'Brian, lg; P. Smith, rf.

Next Tuesday night David Parker, former Physical Director of the Y. M. C. A. now in army work, will bring a team up from Camp Sherman to play the local "Y."

Next Friday the Y. M. C. A. plays the Columbus Athletic Association.

HENS WILL WORK FOR THE BAPTISTS

Lima, Ohio, March, 9.—How mighty is the egg?

The humble hen will raise one-tenth of the $100,000 Ohio Baptists are subscribing for war work, according to W. D. Chamberling, wealthy Dayton manufacturer, who sprang his plan at the district "setting up" meeting at Lima, Friday night.

Seventy-two million dozen eggs is the yearly out put of Ohio hens, which, according to the most recent available statistics, number 12,485,338.

At least one-sixtieth of these are Baptists hens in good standing, enthusiastic laymen of the denomination declare. Their eggs will be pledged to the Baptist war fund for the week of March 17, which is designated "Golden Egg Week."

Twenty-four thousand dozen eggs laid in one week in Baptist chicken-roost of Ohio will, according to this estimate, yield $10,000 to the campaign.

NO GAS SHORTAGE IN MT. STERLING

Throughout all the turmoil due to zero weather, blizzards, coal shortage, fuel administrator's orders and the like, Mt. Sterling has sufficient reasons to congratulate itself on its natural gas supply.

There was not a single minute during the hard and cold winter just past, that any patron of the Ohio Fuel Supply Company lacked a sufficient pressure of gas. A condition of which many towns and cities of Ohio and adjoining states cannot boast.

We are therefore duly thankful for this efficient service rendered at a time when needed. This service was due in a great measure to the local representatives of the company at this place who were untiring in their efforts to keep us supplied. Such efficient service in such a time as that just past is a real comfort, local patrons, I am sure agree.—Mt. Sterling Tribune.

FUNERAL ARRANGEMENTS ARE ANNOUNCED

The funeral of Macey Ellis who died Wednesday at Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., will be held at the Quaker church at Leesburg, at 2 o'clock Sunday.

BIG AUCTION FOR JEFFERSON BRANCH OF THE RED CROSS

Within the next three weeks Jeffersonville and Jefferson township will hold a big Red Cross auction, the proceeds of the auction to be used in the Red Cross work of the chapter.

This was decided a day or two ago, and already the people are responding most liberally with gifts to be sold at auction, and it is expected that when the big sale is held there will be such an outpouring of gifts such as usually seen at a similar event, and that bidding will be brisk.

The Jefferson Chapter of the Red Cross has been very active, and the latest plan is expected to be the crowning achievement of a number of very helpful sales held recently. Up to the present time some individual sales have been made and there was such an evidence of the unselfish spirit, that the big general auction was decided upon, and the date will be fixed in the near future.

It is expected that every thing from a pound of sugar to a suit of clothes, and a pound of butter to a horse will be included in the large number of articles for sale.

The auction will be attended by a large number of citizens from Washington and in fact from all over the county.

10,000 SOLDIERS IN FRENCH CLASSES

"Parley vous Français?"

"Oui, oui, Monsieur; je can parley a little bit."

Such conversation is now-a-days frequently overheard in the cantonments of the middle west, since so many thousands of soldier boys are learning to speak French and the army Y. M. C. A. classes.

It isn't always the pure Parisian or academic French, but it is a very acceptable brand of American French and one that will certainly work when the boys go "over there" and line up in the trenches next the "poilus."

There are at present more than 10,000 soldiers studying French in the central military department under Y. M. C. A. auspices, according to figures just announced by the National War Work Council. Approximately 500 French classes are in session at stated periods each week in the six big cantonments of the middle west alone.

Camp Grant recently had the largest enrollment, with 3,000 officers and men in 51 classes. Camp Custer and Camp Sherman each have had enrollments throughout the winter totalling more than 2,500. At one time Camp Custer had 80 classes in operation and Camp Sherman had 100.

PREPARE AGAINST COAL FAMINE

Thirty-two cars of coal have been received by the local dealers within the past week. This is the largest shipment that has come in for several months.

Many large consumers of coal, acting on the advice of county, state and national fuel administrations, have commenced to lay in a winter's supply, so that there might be no repetition of a coal famine and its paralyzing of business as was caused by this year's shortage.

As evidence of the difficulty in obtaining coal this winter, one well known farmer residing on the state road made trips to and from his home to this city that aggregated eighty-five miles, before he was able to get coal.

IN MAY, 1919:

(By American Press)

Columbus, March 9.—The statewide prohibition amendment, to be submitted to the people of Ohio at the regular election next November, if adopted, will go into full force and effect on May 27, 1919.

After much discussion, state and local dry leaders decided upon this date as the time that the sale and manufacture for sale of liquor for beverage purposes should stop in Ohio, in the event that prohibition wins.

The Ohio Dry Federation, which will wage the campaign for statewide prohibition, has drafted the form of the amendment which is to be submitted and will send it to Attorney General McGhee at once for approval as to its legal form.

After such approval, which is a formality, is obtained, arrangements will be made to begin at an early date to obtain the necessary number of signatures for submission of the proposal to the voters.

CONDENSED MILK MEN CUT PRICES

(By American Press)

Chicago, March 9.—The revolt of milk condensing companies against milk prices set by food commissions is due to unfavorable market conditions, J. J. Fitzpatrick, manager of the Herden company, declared. Mr. Fitzpatrick said he understood there were 30,000,000 cases of condensed and evaporated milk on hand in the United States. Domestic consumption runs about 16,000,000 cases a year; leaving 14,000,000 for export. The government, which fixes its own price for purchasing, has tonnage for only 4,200,000 cases a year. "With no visible outlet for nearly 10,000,000 cases, condensaries are not eager to buy high-priced milk to add to their stores," he said.

For the Chicago district, which includes southern Wisconsin, northern Illinois, northwestern Indiana and western Michigan, the price was fixed at $3.10 per 100 weight to the farmer. Milk distributors are still paying this price. The condensaries sent out a $2.83 bid. It is said that condensaries throughout the country have made proportionate reductions in their bids. Farmers in the Chicago district are reported on the verge of a strike as a result.

MOVING CONTINUES MANY CHANGES MADE

An almost unprecedented number of changes have been made in Fayette county during the past two weeks, by persons moving from one farm to another, from the city or towns to the farm, and a very few from farm to city.

Scores of persons have been affected by the annual changing about, and the number has been greatly augmented by an extraordinary number of farm sales during recent months.

Quite a few families have moved to other counties, but the number moving into the county will more than offset this change.

A RAW, SORE THROAT
Eases Quickly When You Apply a Little Musterole.
And Musterole won't blister like the old-fashioned mustard plaster. Just spread it on with your fingers. It penetrates to the sore spot with a gentle tingle, loosens the congestion and draws out the soreness and pain.
Musterole is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. It is fine for quick relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds on the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). Nothing like Musterole for croupy children. Keep it handy for instant use. 30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

SHERIFF FRUSTRATES
BOLD JAIL DELIVERY
Sheriff W. H. Warner of Pickaway county, frustrated a cleverly planned jail delivery a day or two ago. He was called into a cell by John Reynolds, colored, under indictment for arson and manslaughter in connection with the Tremont Hotel fire, who asked him to remove the waste paper basket.
While the Sheriff was in the act of raising the basket from the floor, Reynolds struck him on the head with one hand and threw pepper into his eyes with the other. The Sheriff succeeded in closing the door before Clarence (Big Liz) Johnson, in for highway robbery, could escape.
Only when the prisoners were secured did the officer do anything for his eyes.

PROPOSES CANAL

Washington, March 9.—Representative Welby of Ohio has started a movement looking toward possible construction of a ship canal from Lake Erie to the Ohio river following the line of the Miami and Erie canal from Toledo to Cincinnati. The route would be via Napoleon, Defiance, Delphos, St. Marys, Piqua, Troy, Dayton and Hamilton to a point connecting with the Ohio river at or near Cincinnati. It is provided that the canal shall be so constructed as to depth and width as to contemplate the passage of steamboats and vessels which are now found on the Great Lakes and the Ohio river. (By American Press)

Chicago, March 9.—Chicago liquor interests scored a point when the board of election commissioners decided that the board has the power to investigate the validity of certain signatures on the petition to put the liquor question up to the voters of Chicago at the April election. The prohibition forces presented a petition containing 140,794 names. The wets countered with charges that 53,072 of the signatures were invalid.
The grand jury began an investigation of the charges by the liquor interests that forgery and perjury was committed by many of those who prepared the dry petition. Evidence was presented against eight persons.
